

DR SUE SIMON

Course Designer ~ Senior Facilitator ~ Executive Coach

Sue's career has spanned multiple functions from Management, Marketing, the Arts, Education and Leadership. Her PhD from Nottingham University, U.K. focussed on staff development leading to optimal organisational culture development.

Over the past twelve years, Sue has been the Head of three leading independent schools in Queensland and has flourished professionally from the wide range of challenges encountered through these roles. She has not only become a leading educator but also a strong, decisive leader.

In January 2011 Sue commenced her consulting practice in leadership development in the educational and corporate sectors. Her commitment is to provide outstanding and valued service to individuals and organisations based on her knowledge, experience, integrity and enthusiasm.

In late 2010, Sue attended the Centre for Creative Leadership in the U.S. and gained accreditation in Benchmarks, Executive Dimensions, 360 by Design, Prospector and Skillscope which are globally-recognised leadership and performance appraisal tools.

In partnership with People Results, Sue is the designer, course writer and senior facilitator of The Leadership Acceleration Experience, a unique leadership development program.

Sue's specific areas of expertise are:

- Team Cohesion and Development
- Individuals, Teams, Organisations, Systems
- Executive Mentorship
- Change Facilitation
- Strategic Visioning
- Corporate Governance
- Operational and Management Mentoring
- Organisational Performance Management
