

JUDY McLENNAN

Career History and Coaching Experience:

- An Associate Certified Coach (ACC) through the ICF, Judy has been coaching individuals and groups since 2001. She has coached executives in leading public & private sector organisations including: Queensland Department of Public Works, Queensland Environmental Protection Agency, Department of Veteran's Affairs, Queensland Health, Ranbury Management Group, and Teachers Union Health.
- She has been a preferred coach for the Queensland State Development's Business Women's Coaching Program, a facilitator for Business Meets, and a mentor coach for Women in Technology.

Area of Expertise:

- Leadership, communication and personal effectiveness for executives in the public & private sector
- Supporting professionals transitioning from technical to leadership roles
- Career review and planning
- Worklife balance and wellbeing

Qualifications and Coach Specific Training:

- Grad Cert in Professional Dev't -Neuroscience of Leadership(Middlesex University, 2011)
- Authorised Facilitator of the Team Diagnostic™ Assessment
- Licensed Facilitator for The Coaching Clinic®
- Associate Certified Coach (ACC), International Coach Federation
- MBTI (Myers-Briggs Type Indicator) accredited
- HBDI (Hermann Brain Dominance Indicator)
- Graduate Coach U (2003)
- Grad Dip Occupational Health and Safety (Queensland University of Technology, 1996)
- B Occupational Therapy

Professional Membership:

- Member of International Coach Federation

Achievements:

- REN Coaching Scholarship, Beijing 2007

Additional Information:

- Judy's coaching style is engaging, practical and action orientated. Her approach emphasizes the need for individuals and teams to reflect with integrity on their present, clarify the desired outcome, take action and review results.